Why you have been given this leaflet

There have been some concerns about your safety and wellbeing.

We would like to support you to stay safe.

You have the right to live free from harm and neglect.

We may be told that a person is being hurt or abused.

We then try to find out what has happened.

Sometimes we may have to share information with other agencies.

When we do this you can expect:

You will be given time and help so that you can tell us what happened.

You will be listened to.

Your privacy will be respected.

You will be treated politely and with respect.

You will be given information in a way we hope you can understand.

You will know what is happening and have your views taken into account.

You can have someone of your choice to support you.

At the end of the safeguarding process we will ask you what you think by telephone or questionnaire. You can view this online at: www.kent.gov.uk/adultsafeguardingfeedback
