The Kent Learning Disability Partnership Awards

This year we are again holding the Kent Learning Disability Partnership Awards.

The awards celebrate the good work done for and by people with learning disabilities.

Tell us who you think should get an award.

To do this you need to pick a subject area below.

Then fill in the form and post it to us.

Forms need to be with us by 5.00 pm on Friday 22nd July 2016.

Which award would you like to nominate the person for?

1. Employer of people with a disability award
   Do you know an organisation who employs someone with a learning disability. Making sure they are treated the same as everyone else.

2. Supported housing award
   Do you know someone or an organisation who give good information and advice on housing, or give a good place to live for people with a learning disability.

3. Supporting people with learning disabilities award (team or individual)
   Do you know a nurse, social worker, occupational therapist or support worker (etc) who gives excellent service to people with a learning disability.
4. Citizenship award (opening up communities)
This year’s theme for Learning Disability Week is friendships and relationships. With this in mind do you know a service, organisation or person who has worked to make a real difference in their community. This work will have helped people with a learning disability feel included.

5. People’s award
Do you know someone who through their hard work has made a good difference to their own and or other people’s lives.

6. Helping people stay healthy award
Do you know someone who has helped a person with a learning disability get healthier? This award is to celebrate outstanding staff/carer(s)/organisations or projects which have shown exceptional assistance to helping people stay healthy.

Write why they deserve an award because. You can draw or stick things here too.

(continue on a separate sheet if you need to).
What happens now?

A judging panel will look at all the entries very carefully.

Those chosen as finalists will be invited to the awards presentation and lunch, which will be held at 12.00 noon on the 13th September 2016 at Sessions House, Maidstone. This will be followed at 2.00 pm by the Kent Learning Disability Partnership Board, which is a public meeting and so finalists will be welcome to stay.

The closing date for the entries is: 5.00 pm, Friday 22nd July 2016.
