

KCC Children, Young People & Education

Early Help Privacy Notice (including Youth Justice) privacy notice - Easy Read

Who are we?

We are Kent County Council (KCC).

Our Data Protection Officer is Benjamin Watts.

Our Early Help and Youth Justice teams work with other services to help us to support you and your family.

There is a law called Data Protection and the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR). This law means we must tell you:

1. What personal information we collect
2. How we get your personal information
3. How we use your personal information
4. Who we can share your personal information with

What personal information we collect

When we work with you, we need to know:

- Personal information (name, address, phone number, date of birth, gender)
- Ethnicity and disability
- Reasons why we are working with you, what is working well and what you are worried about
- Details of other services that are helping you

	Reasons we can record and use your information We collect and use your information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to do work which the public need us to do (like helping children and families), • because we have a legal duty to do this
	How we get your personal information We get this information from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • what you tell us when we work with you • the Police about crime, domestic abuse, going missing from home, anti-social behaviour, victims of crime • school or college about your attendance, any problems and how you are doing • other KCC services who have been involved with you and your family • The Department of Work and Pensions, details about people in your family who do not have jobs • health services about any medical or emotional needs you have • District and Borough Councils about where you live
	How we use information about you We use information about you to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • make sure you and your family, and victims of crime get the right support at the right time from us and from other services • help us make sure that we are doing the best job for you and everyone we work with • help us get any new services which

	will help support you and the people with work with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • keep you up to date about activities and events
	Keeping your personal information safe We have security which prevents information from being accidentally lost or used in the wrong ways. We only let people see your information if they have a work reason to know it. Anyone seeing your information must do it confidentially. This means that they must not share it unless there is a good reason, such as if you or somebody else’s safety is at risk. We have rules to deal with any problems with keeping your information safe. We will tell you if we have any problems with keeping your information safe.
	Who we share your personal information with We might share your personal information with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • other teams and services who might help you or your family: • family support, young carers, mental health, drugs, and education • other organisations if they have a role with you or your family: • district councils, housing providers, Police, school nurses, doctors, mental health workers schools and colleges • Government Departments: Department of Education, Department of Work and Pensions, Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government • Ofsted and Her Majesties Inspectorate of Probation (HMIP) who inspect our work We must share personal information with the Police if we are asked to by law.

We will not keep information about you for longer than it is needed

Your Rights

Under the UK GDPR you have rights. For free, you can:

- Know what we are doing with your information and why we are doing it.
- Ask to see what information we have about you (Subject Access Request).
- Ask us to correct any mistakes in the information we have about you.
- Make a complaint to the Information Commissioners Office.

You can get more information about your rights and UK GDPR from the Information Commissioners Office (ICO).

For more information visit

<https://www.kent.gov.uk/about-the-council/aboutthewebsite/privacy-statement>