

2019 John Downton Awards

22 October 2019 – 8 January 2020

Submission Deadline: noon Tuesday 17 September

Online submission at <http://www.kent.gov.uk/leisure-and-community/arts/john-downton-awards>

We would like to invite you to take part in the John Downton Awards for Young Artists. This year's exhibition will take place in the County Gallery, County Hall, Maidstone, from 22 October 2019 to 8 January 2020, with an awards ceremony on 19 November. A selection of the works will be taken from Maidstone to be shown at Turner Contemporary from 18 January – 8 March 2020.

Background information

The John Downton Awards were first organised in 2000 at the request of Miss Hilda Downton – sister of the celebrated Kentish artist, poet and philosopher, to recognise the achievements of the young artists of Kent in the fields of painting and drawing.

Accepted media

Most 2D work is acceptable, including drawing, painting, printmaking, photography and collage. We cannot accept 3D work including sculpture, installation, performance or film work or any work that is larger in size than 1.20 metres in either direction.

Please note that all work must be securely packaged for transportation and clearly labelled with both the name and age of the student and the name of the school.

Prizes and awards

There will be prizes for the top three individuals in each of the age groups, 11–16 and 17–18 plus Highly Commended in each age group. The John Downton trophy will be awarded for the best overall submission by a school. There are media specific prizes in painting, drawing, photography and mixed media in each age group and a People's Choice Prize which is voted for by visitors to the exhibition.

Submissions

Submissions are made online by the school only (see below for details). The deadline for submission is noon on Tuesday 17 September. Late applications will not be considered.

Schools may submit ONE piece each per student, with no limit on the number of submissions per school. Any school submitting more than one piece of work per student will be automatically excluded from the selection process.

Successful entrants will be notified by the end of September. Work selected for the exhibition will be collected by courier / delivered to Maidstone week commencing 14 October.

Full terms and conditions can be found below. We look forward to receiving your submissions.

Fixing requirements for selected work

- Work must be supplied framed or presented in such a way so that it can be securely wall mounted with mirror plates fitted as appropriate.

Work supplied without appropriate mirror plates and screw fittings will not be hung. Where mirror plates cannot be fitted due to the nature of the frame, other fixings must be supplied. Where these are not supplied and if the work can be hung using pins, nails or staples, this will be at the exhibitor's own risk and cost. Work unable to be hung must be collected at exhibitor's expense.

- Submission of work by an exhibitor in this way is taken as acceptance of that risk.

Judging panel

- The work will be judged by a professional panel
- Initial long list for the exhibition will be carried out under the auspices of the Culture & Creative Economy Service
