

Your Family Meeting

Why am I having a meeting?

Sometimes the important people in your life need to make plans to make changes for you. This can be for lots of reasons. The people that care for you might need extra support from your family or friends and important people in your life.

What does the Coordinator do?

The Coordinator arranges a meeting for you and the people who care for you to get together to make a plan to keep you safe.

Your Coordinator is not a Social Worker. They do not take sides or make decisions, but they will listen to you and your family to help you make the best Family Plan possible.

Who can come to the meeting?

You and the people who care for you decide who comes to the meeting.

Do I have to go to the meeting?

You can call your Coordinator to talk about this with them. Remember, your Coordinator is here to listen to you.

What if I have more questions?

You can call or text your Coordinator.
